Dealing with the coronavirus we have to face challenges in daily life, like shopping, in public institutions or at the doctor's office, where we have to keep distance from each other for reasons of protection.

We want to offer support with our product range, where it currently makes sense. Our range of belt posts provides many options of public guidance and creates the required distance. Show your customers how to line up. The belts can be printed upon optionally with "Please keep your distance" or completely customised. Top quality "Made in Germany" by 3 years guarantee.

Signal threshold G31

Safe distance you can feel.

The signal threshold provides security to the customer. In contrast to stickers the threshold is a long-term solution, which is immediately haptically perceptible. The neon-green coloured strip in the middle of the threshold is an additional visual reminder of the importance of the safety distance.
